

So Many Halloween Feelings!

1

Today is Halloween!
Petey puts on his ghost costume and hops all around the house.
He is so excited to go trick-or-treating!

Petey leaves the house with his parents. He slows down in front of his neighbours' house.
Petey is feeling worried
"What if nobody answers the door? What will I do if they are out of candy? What if the people aren't nice to me?"
Mommy and Daddy reassure Petey and encourage him to ring the bell.

Ding-dong!
The neighbours open the door, greet Petey and give him candy.
"Thank you," whispers Petey. He is feeling shy.

Petey continues on his way. The next house is decorated like a haunted house and he can hear ghost screams.
Petey is scared.

Next, a clown walks past Petey while pinching his red nose.
"Squeak, squeak!" goes the nose.
"Ha, ha, ha, that's so funny!" laughs Petey. He is happy.

But all of a sudden, someone jumps out of a big pile of leaves.
"Peekaboo!" yells the child who had been hiding there.
Oh my! Petey is surprised!

Petey continues trick-or-treating, and his bag is now filled with candy. On his way home, the bottom of his bag rips open and all the candy falls on the ground. Poor Petey is so sad! "Waaaaah," cries Petey.

Thankfully, Daddy brought another bag, and together, they pick up all the candy. Petey is happy again. What a Halloween night filled with so many feelings!
